

Greetings from Changing the Game for a New Generation! We cordially invite you to our 5th Annual CTG Holiday Gala on December 15, 2019. This year we will celebrate in the beautiful Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, located in the heart of Downtown Orlando

For most of us, the holidays bring warm, joyous thoughts as we plan to celebrate with friends and family. However, for some, particularly children who have lost a loved one to violence, the season will often bring great sadness & pain. In the spirit of giving, and in the narrative of our initiative, "stop the cycle of violence", we have created a way for children who have been directly impacted by violence, to have a night filled with love. Your participation in the form of your presence, your gifts, and your sponsorship speaks HOPE to hurting families.

Here is how you can help...

1. Buy a ticket or a table and come to the gala.
2. Buy a gift for a sponsored child or family.

The children specify their holiday "dream gift," which can be found on our website, www.ctgforanewgeneration.com. From there, you can select a child to present your gifts to in person at the Gala.

3. Become a sponsor of CTG for a New Generation Holiday Gala and on-going programs. Our annual ASK is in the form of sponsorship levels. (Please review the attachment). Your contributions will create happiness and hope for children now and in the coming year. In addition, your sponsorship provides an opportunity for brand awareness for your business on our growing platform.

Truly, in your giving, you will be honoring 'the reason for the season.'

We believe that our children are true agents for change, and it is our responsibility to equip them to "be the change." You will learn more about how we do this through Project I.A.M. (Inspiring Amazing Minds), at the Gala.

As a game changer, you already know the problems that our community faces. No one organization or individual has all the answers. But together we really can "change the game for a new generation"

CTG for a New Generation is a 501c3 organization, so your donations are tax-deductible. Donate on our website: www.ctgforanewgeneration.com Make checks payable to CTG for a New Generation.
